

WEI ZHUANG Regional Manager, ASIA, BIMCO

Wei Zhuang is the Regional Manager of Asia who joined BIMCO in 2011. Now he is committed to providing portfolio services with BIMCO members. He works closely with the BIMCO headquarter by representing the association with different missions in this important region, such as marketing, potential members, training, contracts, regulations and so on.

Wei started his BIMCO career with the legal & contractual affairs department in Denmark where he dealt with a wide range of BIMCO's standard contracts and clauses projects, including project development, revision and promotion. He was further promoted as the general manager of China and the regional manager of Asia.

Before joining BIMCO, Wei was a young fellow at Shanghai Maritime University as well as a maritime lawyer for 8 years. He has a PhD in international law. Guitar and reading are his favourite instruments in his spare time.

About BIMCO

BIMCO is the world's largest international shipping association, with around 1,900 members in more than 120 countries, representing 59% of the world's tonnage. BIMCO's global membership includes shipowners, operators, managers, brokers and agents. BIMCO is a non-profit organisation with NGO status and offices in Copenhagen, Singapore, Shanghai, Athens and London.